SEMINAL WEAKNESS—
Or Impotency, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, so destructive to the human family, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an unlimited extent, producing nervousness, debility, and many of the following train of evils: Loss of sexual power, nocturnal emissions, exhausting drains, seminal weakness, lassitude, pain in the back, dimness of sight, loss of manly vigor, nervous trembling, wakefulness, dull, distressing pain in the head, flushing in the face, defective memory, pimples on the face, aversion to society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the effects. Before contracting marriage, the party should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect before him is dreary and cheerless, and he hesitates, shrinks from the duties and responsibilities of life, because he finds himself unfitted for the proper discharge of its duties by the consequences of early indiscretion, the result of ignorance. In view of these facts, how important it is that this class of diseases should be treated by one who has had the largest experience, and who can be consulted with confidence and certainty of secrecy. Dr. G. addresses those who have injured themselves by private indulgence or self-abuse, and who are now suffering from the following symptoms, the combined effects of which are sufficient to undermine the strongest constitution, and render life miserable, viz: Nervousness, Debility, Unfitness to Perform the Duties of Marriage, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Diseased Imagination, Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Aversion to Society, Timidity, Trembling, Self-Distrust, Evils of Youthful Indiscretion, Pimples on the Face, Blotches, Seminal Emissions, Spermatorrhœa, Impotency, Sexual Debility, Nocturnal Emissions, Lassitude, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Sight, Premature Old Age, Nervous Trembling, Wakefulness, Dull, Distressing Pain in the Head, Defective Memory, Pimples on the Face, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c.
Dr. G. would say to those who have been unfortunate enough to place themselves under the treatment of unprincipled pretenders, who, by the use of Mercury, Sugar of Lead, Zinc, and other poisonous drugs, have ruined their constitutions, that he is prepared to remove all the effects of such poisons, and restore the patient to perfect health. Dr. G. has been longer engaged in the treatment of Private, Nervous and Special Diseases than any other physician in San Francisco, and he has the most unbounded confidence in his ability to cure all cases that he undertakes. Cures guaranteed in all cases undertaken. Charges reasonable. Call and consult the Doctor, or send for a circular. Medicines sent to any part of the country. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. The Democratic Convention.

The Munn Whisky Trial.

CHICAGO, May 16.—In the Munn whisky trial to-day a number of witnesses had been called. Only one was for the prosecution. Up to this time only has been calculated not so much as to show that Munn directly as to show that money had been paid to Rehm, who was a large distiller, testified he received money from Rossing. The distillers had devised the plan of running crooked and Government officials were allowed to have profits. He had paid large amounts of money, probably $40,000 to $50,000. He went to Munn only once. He always went to distillers of intended visits from Government officials. On cross examination Rehm testified he had refused into whisky stealing by A. Ward. The witness proceeded to state how the business was conducted into whisky stealing by A. Ward. He had paid large amounts as election money. Of this Rehm was the disburser. He paid D. J. Ward $25,000. Hessing got a big sum. Ward knew where his money came from. It was illegally obtained. There were $100,000 or more from distillers, etc., $130,000 to $150,000, and $12,000 to $20,000 in politics. At the close of the testimony for the day, which the counsel for the prosecution, the latter having remarked that the witness was impeding will without rebutting testimony or arguments. This proposition was agreed to, and the court adjourned.

CHICAGO, May 17.—In the Munn whisky trial to-day Rehm was called. He said he was a distiller, and testified to the payment of $40,000 to Munn on behalf, and produced several witnesses in regard to the payments. Rehm was finally called the Hon. J. D. Ward to the stand for cross-examination.

The Rival Mayors.

CHICAGO, May 17.—Colvin to-day made formal demand on Colbert to vacate the Mayor's office, and reciting that Colvin, is the legally elected Mayor of Chicago, has as yet made no answer to the demand, and it is stated will immediately commence proceedings against Colvin and

Dom Pedro.

RIO JANEIRO, May 17.—Dom Pedro passed through this city to-day on his way to the province of Rio Grande do Sul. He will leave Rio Janeiro to-morrow.

Fire.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, May 16.—At one o'clock this morning a fire broke out in Shaw & Crossitts planing mill and lumber yard, which was destroyed by fire. Loss, $40,000; insurance, $20,000.

Strike Ended.

CHICAGO, May 16.—Everything is quiet in the coal regions of Tuscarawas valley, and industry is about ended.

Comments of Schurz's Address.

The Chicago Times says Schurz's address is not the product of a moment of thought or force of language, but a premeditated one. The Republican paper would have printed a confession of the great mistake of Schurz's public career, and the confession of his party and consequent failure with all who remain in its ranks.

Trotting Race.

CHICAGO, May 17.—Spalding of the mustang team had been issued early this morning by Justice Morgan, at the instance of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, against all persons aiding or abetting in the race. It was the intention to arrest the drivers, Perkins, as soon as he mounted the stand this morning the managers said the race would be run this afternoon, but it is thought the first fair day, but it is probable that it will be undertaken with the sheriff over the heads of the participants.

Result of the mustang race was a surprise to many. The feats of mustangs were not as influential as fears of Hugh Cassey seemed to fear for the rider, who was more than the animal's. The Herald thinks with Don Quixote's charge of windmills, and hopes he will stay away the day the race comes off.

Action on the Hawaiian Treaty.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The chamber of commerce to-day adopted strong resolutions opposing the passage of the bill to carry into effect the Hawaiian treaty on the ground that the removal of the duty on rice will seriously injure the planters, and throw out of employment thousands of colored laborers. A delegation was appointed to proceed to Washington to lay the facts before the Senate.

McKee and Maguire Committed.

ST. LOUIS, May 17.—In the U. S. Circuit Court this morning, District Attorney Dyer called the attention of the Court to the fact that the time for which the writ of execution of sentence in the cases of McKee and Constantine Maguire expired to-day. It is expected that the arrest of Maguire this afternoon, both he and McKee will be taken into custody and placed in jail.

Dom Pedro.

RIO JANEIRO, May 17.—Dom Pedro arrived this morning and took up his quarters at the Lindell House.

Fire Caused by Lightning.

CLEVELAND, May 17.—A very severe thunder storm commenced last evening and continued until this morning, with a heavy fall of rain and considerable damage, setting the packing house of Rose & Bros on fire this morning which was entirely destroyed. Loss not ascertained.

The Mississippi Riots—16 Negroes Killed.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The Times' New Orleans special says a dispatch from East Feliciana and Wilkinson counties, Miss., estimates that about 16 colored men have been killed there during the past three days of trouble, also one white. Details of the beginning of the affair: Aaronson, a white man, had accused a colored man of stealing, and had whipped him. Aaronson was subsequently killed and dispatches, quite as trustworthy as any, say he was killed by the white regulators of Mississippi during in bad odor and charged with buying stolen cotton at his store. A large number of regulators rallied at the proclamation of the sheriff of Williamson county, and invaded East Feliciana, stampeded the colored men shooting some, taking prisoners and hanging others. The excitement is great and conflicting and perhaps exaggerated reports come in. Yesterday about 500 armed white men were reported in the vicinity of Woodville, and the skirmishing has continued resulting in a reign of terror. A company of U. S. troops at Baton Sara under the command of Capt. Bancroft, thirteenth infantry which remained inactive to-day, has been ordered to compel peace, and investigate and report the causes and results of the riotous proceedings near his station and to move if necessary. The affair cannot be directly called a political war of races. The white planters of Mississippi appear to have invaded Louisiana all too willingly, and a repetition of the same thing may be expected whenever the excuse offers. The refugees have fled to other parishes for safety. Fears are entertained that Senator Weber will be killed.

Col. Scott's Letter to the N. Y. Times.

Thos A. Scott writes the Times to-day as follows: I see in your report from Washington, as published in your paper, the following quotation: Scott might give further very interesting evidence concerning the negotiations by which the Pennsylvania road loaned U. S. road its credit for $10,000,000, one of the conditions, as it is understood, being that Scott should be made president of the Union Pacific road to protect the interest of the company. In reply thereto, I beg to state that the Pennsylvania road never loaned its credit, or anything else, to the Union Pacific road, nor had any negotiations with it, nor had any interest of any nature or kind to protect in connection therewith; that my connection with that president was entirely outside of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Senator Jones' Silver Bill Likely to become Law.

The Times editorial says: Our Washington correspondent again informs us that the silver dollar project of Senator Jones is regarded by its opponents as likely to become a law. Our own opinion is, although it is not improbable that the scheme may be postponed until after the Presidential campaign, in deference to the strong opposition of those who are entitled to be heard on such a question, the job will very likely be put through before next March. It is clear that those who are engineering it mean business. The more the silver question is studied the more decided is the hostility which the jobbers to encounter from the influential portion of the press.

The Cincinnati Commercial is the only journal of any considerable weight which favors the scheme. The leading newspapers of the Pacific coast unanimously oppose it, because it will expel their gold from circulation.

Fire!

TAMPICO, Ill., May 17.—Six business houses, containing large stores and offices, burned here this morning. Loss $50,000, insurance about $8,000.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The residence of Daniel Mingo near Dresden, Yates county, burned and his three children perished.

Confession of a Murderess.

BOSTON, May 17.—It is reported that a Swedish woman living on the Isle of Shoals confessed, on her death bed, that she murdered two women in April 1872, for which Louis Wagner was convicted and executed.

Absconding Jeweler Arrested.

NEW YORK, May 17.—S. F. Frye, absconding Boston jeweler, was arrested in this city at the instance of his creditors, on a charge of fraudulent bankruptcy, and was held to bail for extradition to Massachusetts. Frye was arrested at Windsor Hotel, where he was stopping. He had about $2,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry with him, which were attached by the firm from whom he received it a few weeks prior to his going into bankruptcy. Frye was detected first by the custom house officers, who thought he was a smuggler. He stated at the hotel where he was stopping that he was from Peru and had arrived in the steamer Helvetia with Don Pedro; but it was subsequently ascertained that he had come on the steamer Acapulco from San Francisco, where he has a brother living, with whom he had been living since his flight.

Memorial against the U. P. R. R.

In answer to a communication from the Cincinnati board of transportation requesting the co-operation of the New York board of cheap transportation and other similar bodies in memorializing Congress against additional land grant to the Central and Union Pacific roads, the committee on railway transportation have prepared a memorial petitioning Congress to the effect that the Union Pacific Railroad which derived its existence from the liberality of the people of the United States, instead of being operated so as to contribute to the largest extent the commercial prosperity of the nation, is operated for the pecuniary aggrandizement of a few individuals. The rates they impose for the carriage of freights are enormous in proportion to the cost of the service of transportation by rail and variously estimated by the best authorities at 1¢ to 2¢ of one per cent. per ton per mile. The distance from Omaha to San Francisco is 1,907 miles. At the maximum rate of 2¢ of a cent per ton per mile, the cost of transportation for the entire distance is 27½ cents per 100 pounds, while the present rate is $6 for 1st class freight, or $12 for some merchandise that they charge double first class rates. This is a profit of nearly 1,600 per cent on the best named rate. From Omaha to Ogden, a distance of 1,033 miles or 291 less than by the Central Pacific, the rate is 2½ first class, or $15 58 for double first class, or upwards of 2,100 per cent profit. This corporation having bought out their steamship competitors from New York, raised their rates of freight 100 per cent, and thus enforced a ruinous tax on all commerce. The rate from Pittsburgh to San Francisco and from Cincinnati to the same point are so arbitrarily adjusted as to be 50 per cent. in favor of Pittsburg notwithstanding a difference of 500 per cent against the city in form of distance to be carried. Such abuses of charges and monopoly were certainly never contemplated when the country were taxed to facilitate the building of the C. P. R. R. memorialists would, therefore, pray that no further benefits be conferred by legislation on this corporation, but that every restriction which, in your opinion, can be offered to this abuse of power be enforced by such legislation as may seem expedient.

Cotton Mills Closed.

Dispatches received announce that many cotton mills in New England have either shut down entirely or are working on reduced time. Further embarrassments are behaved imminent.

Columbia College Commencement.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Columbia College commencement was held to-night. The graduating class numbered 219, among the names being Ulysses Simpson Grant, grandson of President Grant, and Wm. T. Pierrepont, son of Attorney General Pierrepont.

Rumored Death of Barrett.

It is rumored that Barrett, the absconding lawyer has died in some foreign country.

Died of Trichina.

Four persons died to-day in Steuben county from trichina. Others are sick.

Grand Lodge Odd Fellows of Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—The 37th annual session of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of Missouri met here to-day, a large representation being present. Reports of officers show a very prosperous condition of the order.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Impeachment Trial.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—In the senate secret session to-day, Edmunds argued in favor of jurisdiction. It is not probable that a decision will be reached before Thursday. It is generally believed that the senate will decide affirmatively.

Cabinet Session.

The Cabinet session to-day was of nearly three hour's duration, and it is understood that the Louisiana difficulties were the chief topic of attention. All the members were present. A telegram from acting Governor Kellogg, in New Orleans, was read by the President. Its purport was that senators disorders has broken out in East Feliciana and other points, and reciting his difficulty in securing military authority to prevent bloodshed, as well as his apprehension that further disorders were probable. The acting Governor has telegraphed that the United States authorities were inclined to act unless actual violations of the U. S. laws occurs. The result of the consideration of the matter in the cabinet was the sending of a telegram to Gen Augur commanding in Louisiana instructing that officer that on the requisition of the governor and high judicial authorities were not able to preserve order, to give such aid as in his discretion may be necessary to prevent bloodshed and violence.

Louisiana Investigation.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Sheriff Hunt's testimony before the Louisiana committee this afternoon. As deputy marshal of Louisiana he arrested Davis, on Mosby's warrants who was guilty of no crime. He came to New York with the witness to expose him. But Mosey promised him $1,000 cash and gave him five notes for $200 to give up the papers. This he did, but retained copies and as Mosey has not paid him is determined to expose him. Wilkes and Storey wrote to him to go to Mr Cassey in New York and try to get him $500, and he would probably pay $50 and he was also to ask for the promised appointment. Witness did so and received both the $50 and the appointment as the New York custom house on the 2d of this month.

I am still employed there, when I came here unless I have been dismissed since I came here. Cassey was anxious about the appointment of this committee, and the testimony I might give. I was told in New York, by Mr. Connor, member of the Louisiana legislature that the sergeant-at-arms was in town, and I had better go to Canada. I was shown a dispatch from Morey to Cassey, asking Cassey to go to the custom house and get the lease of absence. Cassey did so, but Mr. Morey would not furnish witness the $50. He would have gone for $500, but was only offered $500. In reply to cross questions, witness said he made a statement of the principal point against Morey over a year ago, and showed it to several persons and that year one of the papers he said to Morey, but he kept a rough copy of it for self-protection.

Kentucky Central Railway Claim Investigation.

Clymer's committee to-day resumed the inquiry into the Kentucky Central Railroad claim. Dunn, judge advocate general of the army, testified that in the fall of 1870, this claim was referred to him by the Secretary of War in the ordinary course of business. He made careful and thorough examination, and was reported as just and it was paid. No effort was ever made to influence him; nobody ever suggested to him to hurry the examination as Pendleton wished to get to Europe. He was in Congress with Pendleton, but his acquaintance with him was limited. Witness produced documents to show that there was nothing to prevent the War Department had rejected the claim, or had reason to do so.

The Reduced Army Estimates.

The Secretary of War has transmitted to the House his report of the reductions from the estimates for the year, based upon the suggestions of army officers. In the Quartermaster's Department and in the Ordnance the reductions are large, and in the Engineer's Department considerable. There is a reduction of a million dollars for clothing, a million for fortifications. The entire reduction is $5,688,040.

Scandal about Blaine.

The Star's Washington special says Blaine was defeated at home by Illness, hence the committee did not continue the investigation. A session will be held to-morrow.

Josiah Caldwell, over three years ago, in explaining to a party of friends how he and other persons interested obtained an amendment to the land grant act, spoke of the freedom with which the land grant bonds were distributed in Washington. "Why," said he, "there was Tom Bowles, member from Arkansas, he got twenty five $100 bonds for services which no one knows and which might not have helped their cause one iota." One of the party then asked if Tom was rated at $2,000 which was Speaker Blaine worth? Caldwell hesitated a few minutes, and then answered, Blaine was rated at just three times that amount. This brings about the shadowy seventy-five $100 land grant bonds which Scott says he sold to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and which, in some way, made U. H. Rollins, financier of the road, say that an investigation would involve Blaine, though for the life of him he cannot account for exactly in what way such remark. It has been ascertained since the examination yesterday, that Rollins delivered a speech in Denver on the night of Blaine's election to Congress in 1872, and could not possibly have told Harrison that an investigation would affect Blaine's re-election. All this is now green in Rollins' memory, though he cannot imagine why he should ever have mentioned Blaine's name at all. The re-election referred to was, however, not to Congress, but as Speaker of the House, for that was most needed.

Credit Mobilier Suits.

The famous Credit Mobilier suits against the U. P. R. R. are to be pressed to an early decision by the supreme court. The House judiciary committee agreed to report a resolution authorizing the employment of such counsel as the Attorney General in prosecuting the case, and will express the opinion that it is the duty of government officials to urge the case, in justice to the people of the United States.

Land-Grant Bill.

The Judiciary committee of the House to-day made progress in the consideration of Lawrence's bill to perfect the interest of government in land grant railroads. Section 1 was agreed to, which provides that on all moneys due the government from railroad companies, the payment of which is unreasonably delayed, there shall be paid interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum. The remaining sections relate to the mode of settling down interest by creating a sinking or safety fund for that purpose, which will be agreed to at the next session of the committee.

Miscellaneous.

The House military committee has certified the testimony taken in the case of Horace Boughton, late clerk of that committee to the state department, in order that Fish may know the reasons why the character of J. A. Bridgeland, consul at Havre, should be inquired into. Bridgeland is from Indiana and had no friendship and influence of Mr. Pratt and Mr. Morton, who were instrumental in the suppression of the charges against him.

R. Burlingham, who was arrested in Mobile a few days ago, and is under bail on a charge of embezzling $5,000 while State treasurer, is the man who was so strongly and perseveringly urged by Senator upon Postmaster General and the President for appointment as postmaster at Mobile. It is regarded as peculiar that so good a man as Spencer should so often be found in association with rogues.

Senator Edmunds' Speech.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The Tribune's Washington special says Edmunds' speech in the senate was the most powerful of his life. One of the rules of the senate is that no speaker shall be allowed to speak longer than fifteen minutes but by unanimous consent. Edmunds was granted all the time he wanted. Hereafter the speeches will be unlimited. Freelinghuysen, Morton, Sherman and others spoke. It is probable that the secrecy rule now will soon be removed and all speeches printed.

The Conkling-Edmunds Delight.

Conkling had another quarrel to-day with Wilmunds, on the proper reference of the salary bonds. The immediate occasion of Conkling wanted it to go to the foreign affairs committee. Edmunds objected. Conkling the weapon fired it and intimated it was none of the Vermont senator's business inasmuch as he (Conkling) was chairman of the commerce committee and a member of the foreign affairs committee. Edmunds was a member of neither, and especially seeing it was the desire of sargent that the bill should go to the latter committee, inasmuch as it related to our treaty stipulations with China. Conkling took occasion to give Edmunds a sound dressing on having in charge Sargent during the manifest intention to regulate the Senate. Edmunds tried to rally and return the blow, but was not equal to the task. Conkling had the strong side and the Senate was with him. Edmunds did not disclaim being an objector, but thought the present attitude of the New York senators was not in that line. He thought "Barkis is willing." This raised a little laugh at Conkling's Presidential aspirations, and a small bet was made at Conkling's opinion when reference was made to that part of his speech in which he remainded Edmunds that he was on both committees and he (Edmunds) was on neither, and that therefore the bill, when reported would be perfect, to which ever committee it might go. The bill was referred as Mr. Conkling desired. There is not, and has not been for some time, a very cordial feeling between these two leaders and they frequently show a desire to antagonize each other. This passage is not likely to be the last as Edmunds generally remembers old sores.

An Effort to Censure Robeson.

It is reported that the House naval committee will make an effort to censure Robeson on account of certain facts in connection with furnishing clothing to the navy and the receipt by Cattell of $10,000 from the successful contractor. That Mr Robeson has not been called before the committee. His friends claim that the examination of the witnesses has been unjust and one-sided from the first that only the side against him has been looked after, that the disappointed contractors, discharged officers and employes and professional land throwers, only have been examined and that if by chance the coming out of some fact favorable to the Secretary seemed pending a way would be found to keep it back. The rules of evidence had not been respected, and doors have been thrown open for the most extravagant and monstrous statements and no opportunity given to the secretary to reply. As for the contracts for clothing and supplies the secretary has nothing to do with them. High officers of the navy whose standing is above question, in most cases, are at the head of the different bureaus of the department and they make contracts without regard to the secretary. The committee is now engaged in preparing the report in connection with the contract of the notorious Norman Ward with the department.

Bill Affecting the Title to Mexican Grants.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Wigginton's bill introduced to-day, is designed to validate the patents to lands on rejected Mexican grants that were issued to settlers prior to the interior department's decision in the Dillingham case, together with all bona fide settlements that have not been patented.

Investigation of Frank Morey.

The investigation of Frank Morey, member of Congress from Louisiana, was resumed to-day and Major Seelye was cross-examined. He stated there was a defalcation of between $7,000 and $10,000 in the New Orleans postoffice; that the employes were assessed to make up the deficiency. Witness declined to answer an inquiry whether he was guilty of other crimes or not, on the ground that he, as others, would be criminated thereby, and charged that Morey had tried to get him into the penitentiary to screen himself. Morey's counsel tried to show up Seelye's bad character. Seelye admitted that he got railroad passes as special agent of the postoffice after he term had expired. He repeated the charge that the Republicans had tried to get him into the penitentiary from making these exposures, and that attempt to send him to the penitentiary.

CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

PHILADELPHIA, May 16.—The Centennial grounds to-day were very unpleasant. Rain continued the greater portion of the day and the attendance was rather slim. The commission to-day discussed the propriety of reducing the admission fee and abolishing the rule that a 50 cent piece alone shall admit but arrived at no conclusion.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—The number of visitors to-day is somewhat larger than yesterday. Prof. Longfellow was among the visitors.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Impeachment Trial.

NEW YORK, May 17.—When the Senate went into executive session to-day on the question of jurisdiction in the Belknap trial, White, of Indiana, submitted the following which was read but not acted on:

Ordered, That the Senate sitting for the trial of impeachment shall proceed at four o'clock this afternoon to vote, without further debate, on the question of jurisdiction raised by the pleadings in the impending case; and each Senator shall be permitted to file within two days his written opinion thereon to be printed with the proceedings.

Allison moved to take up the resolution submitted by him yesterday, which was rejected.

The discussion on the question of jurisdiction was then continued, and Edmunds concluded his argument in favor of the affirmative. He was followed by Wright against jurisdiction, and Conkling then took the floor, but before he had spoken long a motion to adjourn until to-morrow was agreed to, when he will finish his argument.

After a short session, devoted to unimportant legislative business, the senate went into secret session as a court of impeachment. Before reaching any decision the Senate adjourned at two o'clock.

House.

Vance called up the report of the committee on printing in the matter of Clapp and addressed the House at considerable length declaring that the government printing had cost at least half a million dollars per year more than it ought, for 17 years.

Bullock made a minority report, taking ground that the government printer was an officer of the Senate, and therefore not amenable to the House. The testimony also failed to show a case justifying any harsh criticism, or condemnation. In no instance have the treasury liberal defalcation of one cent, nor was it pretended that the printer or any friend profited one cent illegally. The witnesses were all unfriendly and interested in getting Franklin Rives removed as public printer by the contract system, which could not much more cheaply done. Ballou supported the majority report in a speech declaring Congress itself was at fault in making eight hours a legal day's work. The most manner in which the work was performed was the best answer to the charge that the printer and his subordinates were incompetent. In conclusion, he stated his only relation with Clapp is an honest, upright and faithful public servant.

Singleton supported the majority report in a speech which caused an angry scene between himself and Garfield. After some further remarks, the previous question was seconded and the vote on the resolutions directing the speaker to certify to the proper authorities of the District of Columbia the testimony taken relating to the conduct of A. M. Clapp as Congressional printer, to the end that he may be indicted and prosecuted. The resolution was adopted. Yeas 137, nays 74. A party vote.

The next vote was on the resolution instructing the judiciary committee to inquire whether the Congressional printer is an officer so that he may be impeached. Adopted without discussion.

The third resolution instructing the committee on appropriations to embody in sundry civil appropriation bill a section changing the present system of government printing, was referred to the committee, on motion of Holman.

The first resolution was modified so as to refer the testimony to the authorities of the District of Columbia for proper action.

Piper introduced a bill to restrict the immigration of Canada. Referred.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the postoffice appropriation bill.

On motion of Holman the compensation to rail roads for carrying the mails was fixed at five mills per letter foot, when run at a speed not exceeding 25 miles per hour, and six mills when running at the rate of speed exceeding 25 miles per hour. Without proceeding further the committee rose and a resolution was introduced by Lewis, and adopted, instructing the committee on rules to inquire into the propriety of consolidating the office of door keeper and sergeant-at-arms.

The sum to be paid to any railroad for transportation was limited to $4,000 per mile per annum. An additional resolution was adopted allowing third class matter to be sent in packages not exceeding four pounds in weight and making the postage one cent for every two ounces. The appropriation for letter carriers was increased. General debate followed, the senate was then in secret session as a court of impeachment. Before reaching any decision the Senate adjourned at two o'clock.

Amnesty in France.

Ladies of the Foreign Legations to be Put in Safety.

A Berlin dispatch says it is rumored that the council of ambassadors at Constantinople has agreed to recommend that all the ladies of the foreign legations be sent on board men of war, in readiness to leave in case the danger continues.

An Outbreak Imminent.

A dispatch from Constantinople says ambassadors and others believe an outbreak imminent. The ambassadors make joint arrangements for the protection of their countrymen. All the legations but one, the Russian, have telegraphed to their consuls for protection of the steamers of Messageries Maritimes. The Russians armed 200 Montenegrins, and the Austrians armed 1,500 Croates and the crews of the Austrian Lloyds steamers. The British fleet was telegraphed for to come to Besika Bay.

Additional Guarantee Demanded.

LONDON, May 17.—A Berlin dispatch says the result of the conference is the resolution of the three Powers to ask the Sultan for additional guarantees for the execution of reforms. These guarantees are adapted to the insurgent programme and involve the confirmation by the Sultan of the superintending commission appointed by the Powers. This scheme, if approved by the Western Powers, will be recommended by them to the insurgents. If the Porte makes the desired concessions, the scheme will not be submitted to the insurgents, who will be requested to lay down their arms. An attempt to include an armistice will precede their negotiations. If the above project should fail through in the way of any of the successive changes, a conference of all the Powers will possibly be called.

MR BLAINE'S VINDICATION

The Democratic papers do not readily admit what is now become too apparent for anything short of the blindest partisanship to obscure, namely that the investigation of the charge against Mr Blaine in connection with Union Pacific railway affairs has ended in his complete and triumphant vindication. Some of them keep up such a noise about the matter as indicates how much they dread the contest which is before them with Blaine as the first man on the Republican national ticket But the independent press, which looks facts in the face and dares express its honest judgment upon men as well as measures join with that part of the Republican press which is not fettered with ring control in declaring the evidence of Blaine's innocence and integrity is absolutely conclusive The whole matter stands down to a statement by Harrison ex director of the Union Pacific, that once upon, some years ago, finding that $44 000 of that company's money had been paid for bonds of the Little Rock and Fort Smith railway company, and thinking the transaction a little mysterious, he asked for an investigation of the circumstances connected with it, and was told by Rollins, another director that such an investigation would involve a prominent Republican politician, and that he understood that prominent politician to be Mr Blaine Rollins testifies that he never said any such thing about Blaine Joseph Willard, who was a director at the same time and present at the same meeting in which Harrison says he asked for the investigation, that he heard some such remark by Rollins about a Republican politician, but without any mention of Blaine's name, and that Rollins subsequently, on the name of Blaine being connected with the matter, repeatedly stated that Blaine had nothing whatever to do with it And then comes Col Scott, then President of the Union Pacific, and testifies that those Little Rock bonds were transferred to the company by himself in order to get money for his individual use, and Blaine had nothing in the world to do with it This certainly ought to set the matter at rest forever Harrison's statement at the very most amounts to nothing more than that from a vague remark by Rollins he inferred that Blaine was mixed up with the transaction, while the other testimony shows that such inference was wholly incorrect. Blaine comes out of the investigation, not as the New York Times puts it neither injured but helped, but helped immensely When a prominent man is accused of dishonorable conduct, and an investigation clearly disproves the charge there is always a reaction in his favor, and this is especially so in Mr Blaine's case, on account of the political purpose for which manifestly the accusation was made. He is much stronger before the people than he was before the attempt was made to destroy him with a slander

THE SALONICA OUTRAGE

The Sacramento Record Union thinks the indications are that the recent outrage at Salonica may prove the last hair that broke the camel's back Governments may often view with considerable apathy the intelligence that one or more of their subjects have been abused or killed by foreigners, but when their official representatives are butchered as the French and German Consuls at Salonica were, the gravity of the situation impresses itself instantly upon the home authorities It is quite natural under the circumstances that the French and German governments should begin to think that a climax had been reached For if foreign consuls in Turkish towns are liable to be massacred any moment in the performance of their duty, and the local Turkish authorities are incapable of protecting them from the fanatical fury of the mob, it is tolerably clear that the Sublime Porte is a cypher within its own territories, and that it must be treated as governments too weak to fulfill treaty stipulations are treated by foreign powers In fact there is very little difference now between the position of Turkey and the position of China It has often been found necessary by the Western Powers to combine and exact retribution and compensation from China, even when the Peking government has professed willingness to make amends for outrages committed, and there can be no doubt that on more than one of these occasions the appearance of foreign fleets has been welcomed by the central authorities, as a seasonable menace to subjects over whom they could exercise no control rom present appearances it will soon be necessary to adopt a similar line of policy with regard to Turkey The Porte is defenseless, incapable of keeping its promises and without the authority to enforce its decrees Two-thirds of its population are little better than savages, always in danger of plunging the country into a furious war of religious fanaticism and governed for the most part by petty chieftains all of whom are robbers and most of whom are ruffians, hating foreigners and especially Christians and paying but scant respect even to the imperial firman The Salonica affair has furnished a very sufficient justification for almost any steps the Western Powers may see fit to take The Eastern question is not one in which American interests are at all seriously concerned but from the fact that our consul was an actor in the tragedy and one of the insulted officials it is possible that the federal government will find it necessary to take action in the matter Of course there could be no idea of entangling the United States in Turkish affairs, but a vindication of the national dignity, insulted by the slaughter and turbaned Turks appears to be in order

Reports say the New York Tribune negotiators for amnesty of the Communists in Paris are pleading the example of the American Republic in support of their programme To this the Conservatives answer that there is no analogy because the French of the Communists demand amnesty as a right Pressé the fact but it does not destroy the analogy, because the French of the insurrectionists in America did precisely the same thing So Democrat has ever yet been found willing to take a proposition in any terms which even implied that the Rebellion was a thing to be forgiven The Republican party nevertheless has placed on the statute book an amnesty law of the most liberal character, and the effect of it has been good. It has, indeed been received in a spirit far more manly and sensible by the Southerners themselves than by their partisan friends at the North and we strongly incline to the belief that if it were practicable a Congress made up of Southern whites and Northern Republicans exclusively would speedily come to a fair and permanent settlement of all the questions now open regarding the South

Next Saturday the Democrats will hold their convention for the nomination of a county and legislative ticket for this county If rumor is trustworthy the managers have the entire business of the convention cut and dried and the delegates will have nothing to do but ratify This is nice for the managers and will save the delegates a deal of vexatious labor We are informed the victuals agreed to be offered up include some very estimable gentlemen We shall be glad to see this information verified when the convention meets for with even so remote a possibility of success as the Democrats have in this county it would be pleasant to feel assured that the election of any candidate on their ticket would not place the office in unfit hands From a partisan point of view the Republicans would of course, be the gainers by the nomination of notoriously unfit persons on the Democratic ticket but there is a higher point of view than that of partisanship Citizenship is, or should be considered first and from the point of citizenship it is desirable that all parties may select good reliable men to office

Some independent Republicans complain of the defeat of Mr Story for clerk as it was generally understood among those who were most active in endeavoring to bring about a reconciliation between the two wings of the party for the purposes of this election that he or some other independent Republican would be nominated for clerk This appeared to be the common understanding, and it would have been more satisfactory to many of the independent Republicans if it had been carried out There is no ground, however to accuse the delegates of bad faith in the premises Though it might have been better under the circumstances to nominate an independent Republican the convention was evidently actuated by no disposition to deal unfairly and the candidate selected is a gentleman of excellent character and qualifications for the office

The Oregon Senator with the quotation marks about his name entertained the Senate the other day with some "eloquent and appropriate remarks upon the danger to which Pacific coast people are subject, of having their morals contaminated by contact with a vicious and depraved race of pagans whose lives are guided by neither God nor conscience ' We are curious to know by which of these the Senator's life has been guided.

A writer in the Pen and Plow discusses the subject of the elements necessary to make a perfect wife These, he says, are seven and arranged in the order of their importance, are piety, sense temper, education manners, beauty and riches All of which is well enough in the abstract, but we have observed a good many indications that, the position assigned to the possession of riches is not accepted by the world with a remarkable unanimity

Public sentiment at the East is beginning to respond to that of this coast on the Chinese question Several of the leading journals discuss the evils of coolie labor as carried on among the Chinese immigrants to this country and agree that if nothing else can be done to check it, the treaty between the United States and China should be modified to a treaty merely of commerce

Only the legislative and county officers are to be elected in June The time of electing Congressmen has been changed by an act of Congress to November Richard Williams is to be elected to Congress on the same day Blaine is elected President

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a special meeting of Klamath Lodge No No 191 I O G T, held in their hall on the 10th inst Bro O Sutherland offered the following which on motion—after some remarks by W R Dunbar G W C T concerning the sterling integrity and moral worth of Bro Small—were unanimously adopted

WHEREAS, The painful intelligence has reached us that our worthy brother Hon W J Small, lodge deputy of our sister lodge, Lake, No 218, was drowned near Lakeville on the 3d inst, and

WHEREAS Bro Small was an earnest and devoted member of our order, working for its prosperity whether in his own or other lodges and

WHEREAS He was an honest upright citizen and ever prompt and faithful in the discharge of his duty whether upon the battlefield contending with our Indian foes or in the official positions he has filled, or in the more common walks of life wherever he has been therefore,

Resolved That we mingle our sorrows with those of the brothers and sisters of Lake Lodge No 218, I O G T, and his kindred and friends everywhere, and that we will ever hold sacred the memory of our earnest brother who has gone before—led by the hand of death through a watery grave—to that "Heavenly Lodge, which meets on the golden sands of the echoless shore of the crystal stream where we all hope to clasp hands with him in a grand reunion in his temple not made with hands, around the sacred altars beneath the banner of Faith, Hope and Charity

Resolved That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the mother of the deceased brother to Lake Lodge and to the DAILY OREGONIAN, State Journal and other Oregon papers for publication

A GOOD WASHING MACHINE.

COMPLETE-WASHER.

WITH GREAT SATISFACTION WE TESTIFY to the wonderful qualities of the "COMPLETE-WASHER" Machine which is in use by many of the best families in our city because it makes the wash day one of pleasure and causes no wear on clothing or fire to operator. It is by excessive and exhaustive labor by the women of our land who are toiling all day long on an ordinary family washing in the hot suds wearing away their knuckle bones and very lives every week in the year and going out from the seething tub to the cold air, which causes one in them, sisters and loved ones to take cold usually causing pains in the back and limbs rheumatism pleurisy chills and fevers etc, inevitably resulting in death. Ladies rescue yourselves from this thraldom and purchase a "Complete Washer" the Premium Washer of our land which economizes time and does away with this excessive labor for you know that for one to handle by hand any articles such as quilts etc that is exceedingly difficult by the old mode. We advise in contract everybody in the force to have one of these Machines They are within the reach of every family

BRIEF NOTES.

The run of salmon still continues light.

Democratic county convention next Saturday.

The New York Hotel is undergoing overhauling.

Second street, from Oak to A, has been replanked.

The steamer Willie Thompson is again ready for service. She starts for Astoria this morning.

There is no small amount of buzzing among the Democrats now, preparatory to the county convention.

The steamer Ajax arrived last evening from San Francisco with a full freight and a number of passengers.

An adjourned meeting of the Grand Encampment will be held at Odd Fellows' Temple to-morrow evening.

Brick masons will soon commence laying the foundation of Norton's new brick hotel at the corner of C and North First streets.

After a ruinous season in San Francisco, the noted Hooley Comedy Company has disbanded, and most of the members have gone East.

Mr. O'Neil, the courteous purser of the Fannie Hayward, is, we regret to state, quite ill with rheumatism. Mr. Ed. Noyes will take his place temporarily.

Rollin P. Saxe, the well known importer of fine stock, who was in this city two years ago, arrived a few days since in San Francisco, from the East, with a number of blooded horses.

It is said that Mr. J. W. Pearson, of San Francisco, is soon to become the owner of the Northern Nevada Telegraph Company. Mr. Platt Burr is expected to leave San Francisco for Portland on the 20th inst.

Henry Villard, Esq., has generously donated $500 toward defraying the expenses of the Centennial celebration. That is certainly doing the handsome thing, and our citizens will not forget such magnanimity.

Inadvertently, the name of Miss Minnie Nicholson was omitted in our account of the M. E. S. S. concert in East Portland. That young Miss sung during the exercises a solo entitled, "Three Angel Visitants," very prettily.

Since Monday the steamer Gov. Grover has been making daily trips between Portland and Kalama. Last evening she was taken to the boneyard, and the swift Bonita will take the route until the steamer Welcome is again ready.

BASE BALL.

The water is so high in East Portland that the Pioneers are unable to practice, and as there are no grounds suitable for base ball on this side of the river, it would seem that a Portland club is not liable to win those Centennial medals. We earnestly hope that some arrangements will be made whereby both the Arcadians and Pioneers can get the necessary practice to win on the Fourth.

W. L. ADAMS, M. D., A. M., LL. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. A lady always in the office to assist in treating women.

NOTES FROM SALEM.

SOCIAL, PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Under date of May 17th, our regular correspondent sends the following:

The ladies of the Congregational Church will "socialize" at the residence of L. E. Pratt, Esq., this evening.

The students of the Academy of the Sacred Heart will give a May Festival in their exhibition hall on the evening of Wednesday next, which promises to be an entertaining occasion. The graduating class will participate.

The ladies of the Congregational Church will give another concert in their church edifice some evening next week. The affair is in charge of Misses Minnie Clarke, Emma F. Gilbert, Nettie Cooke, assisted by Mrs. P. S. Knight.

The following ladies are candidates for graduating honors at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in June next: Miss Mollie Smith, Alice Holt, Josie Fuller, Emma Gosper and M. A. Brainard. They will undoubtedly aquit themselves in a creditable manner.

Among the foreign dignitaries in the city in attendance at the Grand Lodge, we notice Hon. J. S. Drummond, Mayor of the city of Victoria, and Hon. J. D. Robinson, ex-Mayor, and at present Water Commissioner of the same city. They were present at the regular meeting of the City Council last evening and occupied seats within the bar.

The College Base Ball Club are up for a benefit at Reed's Opera House on Friday evening, the members and friends of the club uniting in getting up an attractive programme for the occasion. Two dramatic pieces are in rehearsal, "Down by the Sea" and "Capulettu," or "Romeo and Juliet restored." Both pieces are excellent and the latter is a will consist of music, recitations, etc.

Thos. Smith, Esq., ye popular host of the Chemeketa hotel, having tendered the free use of his commodious quarters, music, gas, etc., to the Odd Fellows for dancing purposes, a number of prominent "three linkers" held an impromptu meeting yesterday afternoon and appointed the following committee of arrangements for the ball to take place to-morrow: Hon. J. G. Wright, Hon. H. H. Gilfry, Hon. A. N. Gilbert, A. B. Croasman and James A. Baker. The Grand Lodge being in session and a number of other guests being invited, an immense crowd will undoubtedly be present.

In response to numerous inquiries in relation to the matter, your correspondent has interviewed W. C. Griswold, Esq., on the question of rebuilding the Willamette Woolen Mills, recently destroyed by fire in this city, and are pleased to announce that prospects are flattering in the extreme. He expresses a willingness to rebuild, providing the citizens of Salem are willing to loan him a sum of money sufficient to run them on their completion. He is willing to risk a sum sufficient to rebuild and furnish them with the requisite machinery, and all he asks is a loan to assist him in running them when ready for business.

E. C., more familiarly known as "Vade" Riggs, was arrested at an early hour this morning charged with forging a note on John Martin for the sum of $100, payable in three months. It seems that young Riggs applied to C. W. Shaw & Co., yesterday, for the loan of the above sum, offering Mr. Martin as security. Receiving a favorable reply he went out and shortly returned with the note properly endorsed, and received the money. Circumstances transpired which led Mr. Shaw to suppose all was not right, and had Mr. Martin interviewed on the subject, who replied that Riggs had applied to him for his endorsement, which he had peremptorily refused to give. Judge Peebles issued a warrant for his arrest, and officer Minto nipped him while engaged in playing billiards about one o'clock this morning, and his preliminary examination will take place this afternoon.

The Offspring of Dyspepsia.

No class of invalids are more to be commiserated than the dyspeptic, since the malady from which they suffer is the parent of a more numerous offspring of tormenting symptoms than any other disease. On the other hand, they are to be congratulated that there is a potent, safe and agreeable botanic remedy for all the torture that they undergo. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters powerfully invigorates the cellular tissue of the stomach thus promoting an adequate secretion and flow of the digestive juices, vitalizes the shrunken and debilitated lining of the stomach, directs the bile into its true channel, and stimulates the inactive bowels and dormant liver. These radical effects are accompanied with the restoration of appetite, flesh, and sound repose, and the removal of flatulence, heart-burn, nausea, palpitations of the heart, vertigo, high colored and scalding urine, water brash, headache, and many other harrassing symptoms of dyspepsia.

ONE DOLLAR EXPENDED now in purchasing a bottle of Jayne's Expectorant, by those troubled with a slight Cough or Hoarseness or Sore Throat, may save the expense of a doctor's bill. A neglected Cough often ends in Consumption. A slight inflammation of the lining of the wind-tubes, the usual symptoms of which are Sore Throat and a Pain in the Breast, frequently leads to Bronchitis. A day's delay may entail months of suffering. Better try at once Jayne's Expectorant, a standard remedy, whose curative properties have been tested by thousands.

PONDS EXTRACT is the essential principle of the Witch Hazel, or Winter Bloom, a shrub found only in the forests of the Northern States. Nothing else is called Witch Hazel Extract. Beware of worthless imitations. Pond's Extract is sold only in bottles, never by the gallon or in bulk. Its name blown in the glass, and our trade mark, a buff wrapper with the picture of three bottles on it, surrounding each bottle.

A PRACTICAL OBJECTION TO TELEGRAPH POLES.

A merchant going home elevated, started against a telegraph pole.

"Beg your pardon," said he. "I hope no offense. It's rather dark, and the street is very narrow, you see."

In a few minutes he came in contact with another pole.

"Couldn't help it, sir," said he, lifting his hat. "I never saw such crooked lanes as we have here in this city."

Again he ran afoul of a pole, this time with a force that sent him backward to the ground.

"Look here, neighbor, you needn't push a fellow down because he happens to touch you; the road is as much mine as yours, and I have as much right here as you have, old stick-in-the-mud."

Picked himself up and made another effort to reach home, but he soon came plump against another pole.

"Shan't make any more apologies," said he, "if you get into the middle of the street and stand in my way, that's your look-out, not mine."

Proceeding on his journey again, and becoming angry and dizzy, he seemed to be entangled in an extricable labyrinth of telegraph poles, which led him to make a general speech.

"Gentlemen, you are not doing the fair thing. You do not give a man a fair chance. You run from one side of the street to the other, right in my way."

Just then he met a friend, and taking him by the hand, he said:

"There is a procession going along this street, and every man is drunk; they have been running against me all the way from the club. I knocked one of the fellows down, one of the fellows knocked me down, and then a lot of them got around me, and I believe they would have licked me within an inch of my life if you had not come to the rescue. Just us go out of this street before the procession comes back, for they are all drunk.---California Spirit of the Times.

COUNTRY GIRLS.

Up early in the morning,
Just at the peep of day,
Straining the milk in the dairy,
Turning the cows away;
Sweeping the floors in the kitchen,
Making the beds up stairs
Washing the breakfast dishes,
Dusting the parlor chairs

Brushing the crumbs from the pantry,
Hunting the eggs in the barn
Churning the cream for dinner,
Spinning the stocking yarn
Spreading the whitening linen
Down on the bushes below,
Ransacking every meadow
Where the red strawberries grow

Starching the ruffings for Sunday
Churning the new-made cream,
Running the plaid and striped
Down in the running stream
Feeding the geese and chickens
Milking the pumpkin-vine
Jogging the little nurse-boy
Driving away the flies

Grace in every motion
Music in every tone
Beauty in form and feature
Thousands might covet to own
Cheeks that rival Spring roses
Teeth the whitest of pearl
One of these country maidens is worth
A score of your city girls

ONE COUNTRY

PATRIOTIC SENTIMENTS OF A SOUTHERN ORATOR

Hon Henry W Hilliard was the orator at the Memorial Day celebration in Columbus Georgia, recently, and in the course of his address, expressed himself as follows

"We have come out of a great intestine war, but the Republic is stronger than it was before the storm tried its foundations We are one people the government is our government, its flag is our flag, the whole country is our country it is a great country the sun at his rising gilds our standard with his earliest beams on the Atlantic coast, and he sheds his parting splendors upon it where it floats on the shores of the Pacific at his setting. It is a country that a man may love and be proud of We are yet in our youth What is a century in the life of a nation The political system under which we live is the freest on the globe. It has stood the severest tests, it still towers in the majestic proportions peerless as Mont Blanc among the Alps, and it will stand. It is founded on a rock It recognizes the right of the people to govern themselves When the government was organized many of its friends doubted, its enemies predicted failure They were afraid of the people It was thought by some of the ablest statesmen who took part in the framing of it that it was not strong enough—they wished to bind the people But it is to day the strongest government on earth it has shown its power in foreign wars its has displayed its strength in maintaining its authority at home We have learned to trust the people—the great, generous true people In entering upon another century of our national existence we have everything to cheer us We have amazing prospects. Our country will advance in wealth and prosperity and power and glory We shall lead the way for the nations in the path of true empire—the development of the principles of true government We must preserve the constitution, we must maintain the Union The government will find its most powerful supporters in the friends of constitutional liberty It is neither an imperial nor a democratic government It is a Federal Republic, deriving its powers from the consent of the people, and to be administered for their good Their will expressed not by the voice of a majority without regard to the fundamental principles of the government, but in the authentic forms provided in the Constitution, is the supreme authority. I see around me many that I have known from my youth. We have sometimes differed in our political views, but I have always accorded to them what I know they attributed to me—patriotic motives. I call upon you now, my countrymen, to devote yourselves to the cause of the country. We must save the Republic. We must set up a standard against corruption, and draw to it from all parts of this broad land true men—from the rock-girdled coast of New England to the tropical plains of Texas, from the shore beaten by the stormy Atlantic, to the golden slope of California, the friends of free government will answer to the call of men who know no section, and trample under their feet the meaner issues that have too long divided us, they will take the Constitution and hold it up that it may catch the first beams of the century about to rise upon our country and exalt it to that supreme place that it held when the illustrious Southerner who sleeps upon the banks of the Potomac feebly bowed to this request, but instead of sending out the invitations as he had intended he withheld them, and he and Mr Brown had the sport to themselves. The Queen however, was by no means satisfied with this arrangement and as the slight came from the one member of the royal circle for whom Her Majesty has a profound regard and whom she consults more than any other member of her family this little annoyance was felt with all the more acuteness

Current exaptor particularly in dealing with diamonds and other precious stones in these days when so much of the genius of mankind has gone into the business of beating Nature in her own products In 1843 Prince Joinville the great Roman banker advanced 20 000 francs to a Neapolitan on a diamond so large and limpid and piercing in the polish of so many facets that no one but the keenest connoisseur could distinguish it from the famous 'Regent' At the Hotel Drouot, in Paris this self same precious stone was sold early in April of this year for 30 francs 50 centimes or about $4

While some men were burning brush on the farm of Mr F Garrison about a mile and a half from McMinnville, on the 10th Lewis, a three year old son of Mr G went too near the fire and his clothes catching fire he was burned so badly that after three hours of intense suffering the poor little fellow died

The fair supply of meats in the market available in the way of loins and the almost entire cessation of any demand from the trade in the stuff brought about by the recent depression in prices make it seem probable that although the rates on interest are still nominally maintained the time is approaching when a reduction must take place if anything, like business life and activity is to be sustained

What shall we do with our silver is becoming an important question truly in this country Its discussion by the press and in the halls of Congress developes the fact that a lack of a full understanding of financial matters is much more general than a hasty glance at the columns that are written about them would cause us to believe A careful and learned writer among the French speaking of financial disquisitions, says Those who approach those questions for the first time decide them at once those who study them with care hesitate those who are obliged practically to decide doubt and stop overwhelmed with the enormous responsibility The Banker's Magazine for May contains an article in which the writer treats the silver question with a great deal of wisdom in his words He claims that it is to the interest of every creditor that money be scarce, in order that he may obtain a good rate for that which he has to lend, and this end he attains in a two-third rate whether he can succeed in limiting the number of articles which can be tendered in payment of debts The drift of capital is now directed toward having a single medium as a legal tender in payment of debts and that medium gold and it is to avert this that we invoke all the force of public opinion Degrade silver in the rank of merchandise and you double the power of capital a power that is already uncontrollable We have a justice in demanding this recognition of silver for the ounce of silver as truly represents a day's labor as does the pennyweight of gold Largely indebted as we are as a nation and needing so much capital for the development of our internal resources it is important—ay, essential—that we retain every measure of value that is safe, in other words, which will not unduly inflate values, and thereby create a greater evil than the one from which we are trying to escape Of the twenty-seven prominent governments of the world seven have adopted gold as the only measure of value, eleven have adopted silver and the remaining nine cling to both silver and gold in a specified ratio, making them interchangeable In our national monetary arrangements it is our duty to consult only what is advantageous for us, and, being so largely a debtor nation and producing so freely of silver it seems clearly our interest to maintain for ourselves and strive to induce other nations to follow as to maintaining the silver valuation

Home Produce Market.

In this department business is still quiet and but few changes are noted The dull prospect for the staples of wheat and wool remain but little improved, though latest telegrams from Liverpool indicate an advance of 2d per cental in wheat It is not however certain that this is more than merely temporary and shippers are very cautious about doing business upon the theory that it is otherwise The ships Caller Ou and Wave Queen both here loading for European ports will carry cargoes principally of wheat and flour, but each will also take consignments of salmon about the first important shipments made direct from Oregon to that country
